

SINGAPORE ARMED FORCES
TESTIMONIAL

No. 2104425

Rank / Name CFC GOH WEI TAI JONAS

NRIC No. [REDACTED]

Corporal First Class (CFC) Jonas Goh Wei Tai served his Full-time National Service as an Intelligence Research Assistant in the Singapore Armed Forces (SAF) 68th Imagery Support Unit (68th ISU), from 4th April 2019 to 3rd April 2021. During his service, CFC Goh displayed a strong sense of duty and a professionalism deserving of commendation. These traits, along with his nurturing nature earned him the respect of his peers and commanders alike.

Throughout his NSF term, CFC Goh embodied professionalism, dedication and self-sacrifice. Despite not being a section commander, CFC Goh does not overlook his position of seniority, and often assists to the best of his ability with leading his juniors to execute the mission flawlessly. This, in conjunction with his generally strong execution and planning skills worked in tandem to accentuate CFC Goh's strength as an Intelligence Research Assistant, and as a leader to his peers.

Due to his strong work ethic, CFC Goh was highlighted as a candidate for to conduct ops conversion training for the unit. This tasking would see CFC Goh ensuring and upholding the continual training standards of the unit crucial to its ability to generate manpower consistently. His continued excellence in this area further emphasized his readiness for higher-level tasking, hence allowing CFC Goh to be nominated for several promotions and awards during his period of service. On 1st February 2021, CFC Goh was officially promoted to CFC following his exceptional performance in the unit. Promotion to this rank is reserved for the top performers of each cohort who have demonstrated the right attitude and aptitude for higher level tasking.

As an Intelligence Research Assistant, CFC Goh has displayed professionalism that impressed peers and commanders alike. His willingness to go beyond the call of duty and deliver work of the highest standard has contributed significantly to the unit and the formation as a whole. 68th ISU is hence confident that CFC Goh will achieve much with his positive attitude and resilience, and be an asset to any organization that he joins.

Commanders and Staff of 68th ISU express great confidence that CFC Goh will deliver similar success in his future undertakings, and wish him all the best in his future endeavors.

Signature

Rank / Name : ME6 LIM JOON YONG, EDDIE

Date : 03 APRIL 2021

Appointment / Unit : CO, 68 ISU, ISG, ISG